4 Talks

Two locations are dedicated to the conference.

Wednesday, Thursday, Friday: Enseirb-Matmeca (see. section 3).

Saturday: LaBRI (see. section 3).

The Opening talk of the conference takes place on Wednesday morning at 9:00 a.m. at the Enseirb-Matmeca. (see. section 3)

The speakers are requested to provide their presentation in pdf format before the beginning of the morning/afternoon session.

5 Transport in Bordeaux

In your BGW 2014 pack, you have a transport card named "Tickarte". With this card, you can take buses and trams when you want and where you want (from Wednesday to Saturday include). HOWEVER, you MUST validate your "Tickarte" EACH TIME you enter a bus or tram: to do this, there are yellow check points inside the bus/tram. See Fig. 2 page 5.

6 Lunchtime

The lunches will be served in La Passerelle. (see. section 3).

7 Coffee breaks

The coffee breaks will take place at the room #12 in the Enseirb-Matmeca building (except for Saturday).

8 Internet access

The eduroam SSID (WiFi) is broadcasted by the Enseirb-Matmeca and by the LaBRI.

9 Social Events

12 Touristic information

Cathedral Saint André

Constructed in the 12th-14th century, restored in the 19th century. Included on the UNESCO world heritage list. Saint André cathedral is a fine example of Gothic style architecture in the south of France. Designed to complement the church, the bell tower Tour Pey Berland overlooks the cathedral square.

Rue Sainte Catherine

With its 1175 meters Rue Sainte Catherine boast as the longest high street in Europe. Only for walkers.

Place de la Bourse

The royal intendant Boucher has commissioned this extraordinary architectural complex in 1755. Buildings along the Bordeaux waterfront were designed by Portier in the 18th century. This project was commissioned by Tourny to complement the architectural harmony of the place for 1.2 km.

Place des Quinconces

Château Trompette, a medieval fortress, was built on this site in 1457 to prevent English invasion after the French victory in 1453. The Monument aux girondins was built in homage to the representatives of Gironde guillotined during the French Revolution.
